

TAO PRIVACY POLICY

This website is run by Trust for Africa's Orphans. We regard your privacy as important and comply with the UK Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended).

You are welcome to access our site without disclosing your personal data.

We will only use the personal information you send to us for the purposes for which you provide it. For example, we collect your information (where you choose to provide it to us), for volunteering purposes, fundraising, administration and development of this website.

We will only hold your information for as long as necessary and will not pass it to any other parties. All employees and staff of the charity who have access to your personal data and are associated with the handling of that data are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your personal data. Your communications to us are protected against unauthorised access by third parties.

If we wish to use your personal data for other purposes, we will offer you the means to consent to those purposes by indicating in a box at the point on the site where personal data is collected or by sending an email to info@trustforafricasorphans.org.uk.

You can ask us whether we are keeping personal data about you by writing to the charity's Co-ordinator, Mrs Joy Mugisha, Trust for Africa's Orphans, 22/24 Molesey Road, Hersham, Walton-on-Thames, Surrey, KT12 4RU, UK.

Trust for Africa's Orphans tries to keep the information we have about you accurate and up to date. If however, you find errors or inaccuracies in your data, we will erase, complete or amend that information upon request.

If you have any concerns about the processing of your personal data by Trust for Africa's Orphans, please contact Mrs Joy Mugisha at the address above.
